

It is my understanding that the constitution guarantees freedom of speech. I believe a government run by and for the people might be willing to listen to the people. I request that comments from citizens of the US who will suffer from a monopoly on media be allowed to comment. Also that citizens be informed what, exactly, is being instituted on their behalf and for their protection.